

Human Resources

Mission

- To recruit, retain and develop a highly skilled and motivated team.
- To treat every employee as an individual and provide opportunities to develop their skills and realise their potential.
- To develop manpower which will be capable of handling operations effectively and efficiently and prove to be the best in the Oil Industry.
- To clarify organisational values and bring about transparency between Management and Employees.
- Develop a distinct DALMA ENERGY Culture and feeling of belongingness.
- To strive to be recognised as a Professional Organisation.